ST. ANDREWS.

St. Andrews, from the Pier. Standing on a rocky foreland jutting out into the North Sea, St. Andrews is half an old University town, and half a golf-resort. Andrew Lang has sung it under both its aspects. Seen from the pier, St. Andrews shows its four most picturesque features over the red-roofed shore-road houses; these are the Cathedral ruins, the Castle ruins, St. Rule's square tower, and the obelisk of the Martyrs' Monument.
